Ph.D. in Counselor Education

A CACREP-Accredited Program from an Established University!

Think National

Counsel in a State-of-the-Art Clinic

Teach Courses During Your Program

Supervise Counselors in Training

Research & Present with Expert Faculty

Join Successful Counselor Education Alumni Across the Nation

Ole Miss
The University of Mississippi
ALUMNI
Our alumni hold faculty positions in counseling programs across the country including the University of Northern Colorado, Mississippi State University, University of New Orleans, Wake Forest University and more!

---

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS
- Official transcripts showing:
  - Master's degree in counseling (preferably from a CACREP-accredited institution)
  - GPA (minimum 3.0 undergraduate and 3.25 graduate)
- GRE scores (less than five years old)
- Statement of purpose
- Resume with three references

---

FOR MORE INFORMATION
Dr. Suzanne Dugger, Program Coordinator
- smdugger@olemiss.edu
- 662.915.8821

---

CURRICULUM
Join a program designed to prepare counselor educators to be skillful teachers, expert supervisors and insightful researchers.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>COUNSELING CORE</th>
<th>COUNSELOR EDUCATION &amp; SUPERVISION CORE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Advanced coursework will prepare you with the knowledge needed to teach a wide range of counseling courses. Doctoral practicum and internship experiences will hone your clinical skills.</td>
<td>Through coursework and internship experiences, you will develop knowledge and skills in college teaching, clinical supervision, leadership and accreditation.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>RESEARCH CORE</th>
<th>SPECIALIZATION CORE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Develop the knowledge and skills in research design, statistical analysis, and publication necessary to complete your dissertation and become an active contributor to the profession's knowledge base.</td>
<td>Select an area of specialization around which to take elective coursework, engage in teaching experiences and conduct research. Enter the professoriate able to create a niche for yourself!</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

APPLY ONLINE BY MARCH 1
Education.OleMiss.edu